April 2011, N.Y. State Assemblyman Joseph Lentol's office made request, on behalf of Plaintiff, SSA and N.Y.C. Human Resources Administration ignored their request.

May 26, 2011 John E. Shallman (SSA) in his reply to U.S. Senator Kirsten E. Gillibrand, never mentioned the requested Court order.

June 24, 2010 JUDGE Michael L. Pesce (N.Y.S. Supreme Court) stated: "... this Court has no knowledge of an Order "authorizing the seizure of the Social Security Disability benefits" you receive".

Plaintiff prays that this Court - will order SSA to obey the laws of this land - provide said Court order - proving that 'due process' was followed - that Plaintiffs Constitutional nor Universal Declaration of Human Rights, rights were violated - thereby proving that Plaintiff is not due, any actual nor punitive damages.
